

Harvard and Princeton Will Meet In Big Clash Saturday

Gloom Settles at Yale At Death of Varsity Man

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 31.—The officials of Saturday's big struggle in the stadium between Harvard and Princeton chosen, everything and every one at Harvard is set for the first clash of the Tiger and John Harvard in years on Soldiers' field. With the exception of Captain Wendell, whose ankle kept him on the sidelines during most of today's practice the Crimson was fit. The time was spent on further development of the special defense and offense play as begun Monday for the special benefit of the striped beasts from the Jersey jungle.

The extra seats around the edge of the field have been completed and it is expected that over 30,000 will be amply taken care of. Tickets were more plentiful this year than at any previous game and ticket speculators have thereby been more effectively eliminated.

The Tigers are expected here tomorrow about noon. After a short drill on Soldiers' field the squad will go to Auburndale to rest up Friday night.

Harvard will have a brief drill tomorrow and then the men will be taken to some nearby suburb to ease down the tension before the first championship contest of the season.

The officials announced today are

W. S. Langford, Trinity, referee; G. S. Williams, Penna., umpire; Lieut. H. M. Nelly, West Point, headlinesman.

DEATH CAUSES GLOOM AT YALE

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 31.—The death of Theodore W. York, of Philadelphia, a Yale sophomore and guard on the Varsity football eleven, cast a decided gloom over the whole team today. York was considered of all-American material. When he left the team it was expected he would be able to return and take part in the big games but pneumonia developed and death came rapidly. There was little work for the squad today, neither the men or the coach seeming equal to the task.

RESERVE TO ANNAPOLIS.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 31.—The Western Reserve football's squad, seventeen men, will leave tonight for Annapolis to battle the Navy eleven Saturday. With few exceptions the Reserve regulars are still lame from last Saturday's clash with Oberlin when Reserve was eliminated from the Ohio conference pennant race.

Oberlin is picked by many to win the Ohio race. They will play the winners of the Case-Ohio State game next Saturday.

20-0 Is Cry of Victory Complexion of Lima High

LOCALS MEET DEFIANCE HIGH AT COLLEGE GROUNDS FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

Although oozing over with confidence Lima High expects a hard tussle with Defiance at college grounds Friday afternoon when the two regions meet again after three weeks. Three weeks ago Coach Simpson headed his band to Defiance where the Allen Countians came through with a 6-0 victory. That was three weeks ago, however. And three weeks have wrought a great change in the locals' style of formation, lineup and general gridiron ability. Friday's game is expected to early develop into a walk-away for the home warriors and nothing short of a 20-0 victory will appease the appetites of the blood-thirsty High gridders.

Lima High has won two, lost one and tied one this season. Losing the first game to Piqua, 12-0, they came right back last week and held the Piqua to a scoreless tie. Victories were recorded over Defiance, 6-0 and over Kenton, 53-0.

If a project materializes, Friday's game will be battled before the focus of a moving picture machine. An agreement between the management of the school team and Manager L. C. Cunningham, of the Fauror picture show, which is favored by the Industrial Moving Picture company of Chicago, may result in the screening of the big game. The moving picture company opens a three days' engagement here Friday to secure pictures of the various industries here, to later be shown on the Fauror screen.

Ohio Teams Want Case To Trim State Saturday

Cleveland, Oct. 31.—A victory for Case over Ohio State Saturday at Case field is next to the dearest wish of the Ohio football conference. The dearest wish is for both Case and Oberlin to beat State. This is State's last season in the Ohio conference. Next fall the big state university will play other big state universities—Indiana, Illinois, Chicago, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

State has long wanted to play these universities instead of little Case, Oberlin and other smaller Ohio colleges, but State couldn't get away because its scarlet and gray

Joe Jeanette Has Close Shave

New York, Oct. 31.—Joe Jeanette had a narrow escape from being shoved off the top rung of the ladder leading to the heavyweight title, in his bout with Jim Johnson of Philadelphia, here last night. Johnson, outweighing him thirty pounds, had him wobbling several times and only Joe's ring generalship enabled him to win on points and retain his grip on the berth next to Johnson. Jeanette will probably be matched with "Gunboat" Smith, of San Francisco, in the next of the heavy weight elimination bouts.

CHURCH LEAGUE TO ENJOY A BANQUET

As an aftermath of their victorious diamond campaign in the late city church league, Trinity church baseball players, pennant winners and trophy claimants will be banqueted Friday evening in the church dining room by the Men's Brotherhood.

Several appropriate toasts have been arranged. With Robert J. Plate acting as toastmaster, the Rev. M. B. Fuller will discuss "Winners"; Eugene T. Lippincott will tell of "Hitting the Ball"; Lee Fauror, captain of the team, will reminisce on "Inside the Diamond"; W. J. Ritchie, chief coach, will discuss "Outside the Diamond"; Dr. H. C. Bennett will read a little linerick written by himself entitled, "The Man Who Knows"; A. K. Hall will give "Reflections" with B. A. Grammi completing the cycle with "The Game of Life."

TINKER WON'T BE CUB WITH EVERS MANAGER.

Joe Tinker says he positively won't play with the Cubs with Johnny Evers manager.

Johnny and Joe were for years a peerless pair at second base because they didn't like each other and each was out to outdo the other. Result: Both played great ball.

PRINCETON CAPTAIN IS LEADING WITH 12 COUNTS

Morey of Dartmouth is second with twelve and Thorpe, the famous Carlisle Indian is third with ten. Close behind are leaders Brickley, of Harvard and Dewitt of Princeton.

Garry Herrmann Will Have To Come Across Says Evers

Chicago, Ill., October 31.—If Joe Tinker hopes to transfer his baseball affections from the Cubs to the Reds he will have to force Herrmann's club to offer more in trade than a bundle of second division athletes. This was the gist of a lengthy spiel handed out by Manager Evers before the new West Side pilot hopped a train tonight, bound for home at Troy, N. Y.

From what Evers had to say the Cub shortstop might as well give up hope of going directly to the Reds by the trade route so long as Cincinnati insists on giving nothing that will help the Cubs. Herrmann has said that the Cubs can take their pick of about eight men, but of this lot he has taken out such men as McLennan, Reescher, Roblitzell, Marsans and the pitchers. This was partly upon suggestion from Tinker, who told the Redland chief that he didn't want to break up the club if he was going to manage it. Tinker, however, has overlooked the fact that when he is let out by the Cubs the team will suffer more than the Reds even should the latter let two of their best men go in trade. This is Evers' argument.

"Downtrodden" Baseball Players Quit Limelight

When the Pacific Coast league closed its season Sunday the lid was placed on the 1912 season and Damon Runyon, the New York humorist, comments on the finish in the following clever style:

"Let us now all arise, join hands, and sing a little song—the swan song for baseball for the season of 1912. A. D. and A-men, which lullaby has been set up in type for some weeks past and has been held awaiting an edition free from the discordance of fogelings, Bressna Hens, Murphysms, allisms and the piercing peeves of players pleading for press notices for their acts.

Observe then. We sing as follows: "Oh, the baseball players they have went And they have taken every cent The fans had saved up for the rent— 'Luh-dah-de-dah, etc.'"

"There is more to this touching ditty, but the balance escapes the memory at the present writing. It should be sung to the tune of 'Hearts Bowed Down.'"

"The official 'office to duck,' as the poet puts it, came from the Pacific coast when it was admitted that Oakland had won the pennant in the Sunset league. This is all—ways the last organization to let the fans up for the winter. An ordinary big league season is not wide enough for the business the coast crowd does, and so they just go on playing and playing, and so forth, until the humane authorities interfere.

"Jeremiah Lawrence Doyle, Josiah 'Jewelry' Devore, G. Cleveland Hartley and J. 'Red Headed' Murray, the last of the Giants who summer in this city, will leave for their various homes today, if they keep their promises, and we'd go somewhere, too, if we had as much money as those parties possess. Doyle goes to Breaux, which is a small smudge on the map of Illinois; G. Cleveland goes back to Osgood, Ind., and Josh Devore is going as far as two feet and a half of railroad ticket will take him. Murray will vanish in the vicinity of Elmira.

"There will then remain in our city only such members of the Giants as are bound to island hives by those interesting leases wherein you give the party of the first part all the best of it. Chris Mathewson departs today for a hunting trip on some private preserves in North Carolina, showing what a pitiful thing it is to be only a ball player. 'The season is over, boys.'

GOING AFTER FOGEL IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, Oct. 31.—Replying to the assertion of President Horace Fogel of the Phillies, that the league has not jurisdiction over his utterances, President Thos. J. Lynch said:

"Any discussion of the truth of the alleged charges is impossible because the charges bear their own refutation on their face and the only question now pending seems to be whether Fogel did or did not make the false statements, that have been attributed to him."

The league has engaged an attorney and according to President Lynch will go to the bottom of the case.

CHAS. KRAMER IS ARRESTED

of Detectives, John J. Halpin, of Chicago, this morning.

"Hold Charles Conway and Beatrice Ryall. Officers will leave on the next train. Congratulations and many thanks for this important arrest."

"JOHN J. HALPIN."

Local authorities were furnished with a poor description of the fugitives Wednesday morning when first word reached here intimating that "Conway's" mother lived in this city. "Conway" was described as a man five feet three inches in height wearing a light suit. He is five feet, nine inches and clad in a dark blue suit when arrested.

Mrs. "Conway" was wearing a dark suit, according to first information. Thursday morning, she wore a neatly tailored suit of light gray with attractive black hat circled by a light gray ribbon. She was very neatly dressed.

Kramer's limp was scarcely noticeable. He lost his right foot eight years ago in an interurban crash. Since he has been doing vaudeville and circus acrobatic stunts in the bookies, he was rated as a "monopede acrobat."

MOTHER VISITS SON.

When told of her son's apprehension at noon today, Mrs. Kate Kramer, mother of the suspect, collapsed. James Kramer, the father, gulped hard but had little to say. He declined to comment upon his son's detention.

In company with his sister, Mrs. Kramer visited the city prison at 1 o'clock. Police permitted her to talk with her son a few minutes. The scene was a pathetic one. Reassuring his mother that he was innocent of the crime and expressing a manly confidence that he and his wife would "come clean" of suspicion, he embraced the little woman to his breast. Tears streamed down his face at times. Police turned away at the scene.

"I don't believe my son is guilty," reiterated Mrs. Kramer, this afternoon. "He never could do anything so terrible." The father went to work this afternoon without seeing his son.

Besides his parents, Kramer has five sisters living at 522 west Vine street. The family moved here from St. Marys a little more than two years ago.

HACK DRIVER

To Whom Conway Talked Gave First Tip to the Police.

To Robert Glover, a hack driver who drives at night for Sherman Davis, owner of a hack line and owner of the Star restaurant on west Market street, the police are indebted for the first tip they received about the presence of the badly wanted couple in this city.

Conway and his wife, after arriving in the city over the Western Ohio traction line, walked about the city in the business districts for some time, evidently in search of an obscure lodging place or endeavoring to find some one whom Conway knew and could trust. Shortly after 1 o'clock they returned to west Market street and entered the Star restaurant to get a lunch. The woman entered the place first while Conway stopped in the entrance to talk with Glover, the hack driver who was standing there. He inquired of Glover if there was a hotel or lodging place near where the rates were moderate. Glover pointed out the entrance to the Cadillac hotel across the street, near the Y. M. C. A. building, and told him that was a good place for her and his wife to get a room.

"Don't you know of some private house where we could get a room for a week or so?" asked Conway. Glover replied that he knew of no such place that he could direct him to and Conway then followed the woman into the restaurant. The woman had already ordered a dozen raw oysters and when Conway seated himself at the table he ordered a piece of pie and a cup of coffee. Jess Bizzell, who waited on the couple, noticed that the woman was nervous and seemed to be worrying about something. She did not eat heartily of her lunch when it was served and Bizzell heard Conway tell her to "brace up and cut out the worrying."

USED THE TELEPHONE.

On a table next to the one at which Conway and his wife sat lay a copy of last night's issue of the Lima News containing an extended account of the murder and announcing the fact that Conway's mother, Mrs. James Kramer, of 522 west Vine street, had been visited by a reporter yesterday, in search of information concerning the missing couple. The big headlines in the newspaper seemed to be staring directly at Conway and his wife but they did not notice them. Glover, the hackman, who had just been reading the paper, had his suspicions aroused, however, because of the fact that Conway had asked for a private lodging house. He had followed Conway into the restaurant and noticed the woman display nervousness when Policeman Cole entered the restaurant. The officer looked at the couple as he passed them and Conway did not flinch but the woman hid and a moment later was quietly cautioned by her companion. The policeman soon left the restaurant and after he had finished his coffee, Conway went to the telephone and called central on the Lima company's line. He inquired of central to learn whether or not Ora Kramer was on duty. Miss Ora Kramer was Conway's sister and is employed as a telephone operator. She was evidently not on duty and Conway then seems to have made some inquiry about his mother's telephone as Glover, the hackman, heard him tell the operator that the parties lived on Vine street. He was evidently informed that the "old" phone, for he then used the Bell line and called and got some one on the other end of the line and talked for some time, speaking so low that the other persons in the restaurant heard very little that he said. They did, however, hear him say that they would be out tomorrow evening. There will be two of us and save us a room."

CONWAY'S CRIPPLED FOOT.

When the couple started to leave the restaurant, Glover watched the man pick up his suit case and watched him walk away to see if he had an artificial foot, as he had read in the News that the man wanted in the murder case had an artificial foot. When Conway stooped to pick up the suit case, Glover and Bizzell both noticed the peculiar manner in which he used his right foot. He walks with but a slight "limp" but the two watchers noticed enough to convince them that the clue they had discovered was worth following up.

As soon as the couple had left the restaurant, Glover hunted Patrolman Snyder and told him of his suspicions. Snyder in turn called Patrolman Cole and the latter made some inquiries as to the description of the couple. They did not tally well with the descriptions sent out by the Chicago police and both Cole and Capt. Earnst were justified in their belief that these were not the people wanted, so far as the description furnished from Chicago was concerned as the Chicago information had the man about three inches shorter than the woman, giving her almost an unusual height for a woman and the man considerably shorter in stature, while in fact the couple as they appeared to those who saw them in the restaurant, were almost of the same height; about five feet and seven inches each.

THE PUBLICITY

Given the Case by The News Led to Apprehension of the Conways.

The Chicago police department, in giving the local press the information that was available on the case yesterday, brought about the apprehension and capture of two fugitives here this morning. "Bob" Glover, the hack driver, and "Bob" Bizzell, waiter at the Star restaurant, had read the story of the murder and of the suspicion that "Conway" was the son of Mrs. James Kramer, 522 west Vine street, in last evening's home edition of the News and when "Conway" and his wife appeared at the restaurant their suspicion was aroused. These suspicions were practically confirmed when they heard the man call up the telephone exchange and ask for his sister, Ora Kramer. The members of the Kramer family were very anxious at the News for publishing the story, declaring that Charles N. Conway, alias Kramer was not the man wanted and that the family had been dragged into unwarranted notoriety by the publication of the suspicions of the Chicago and Lima police. However, when the pair were arrested this morning they admitted that they were Mr. and Mrs. Conway, alias Kramer, the persons wanted. In her interview with the News reporter this morning, the woman at first endeavored to conceal the fact that her husband's real name was Kramer, but when she learned that the newspaper men were fully informed as to their identity, she admitted that her husband's name was Kramer and stated that she had endeavored to conceal the fact because she wanted to shield his people here from the notoriety the case would bring upon them.

TRACED TO THE CADILLAC.

The "Conways" went to the Cadillac as directed by the hack driver, and at 3 o'clock this morning some of the members of the night police force, headed by Capt. Earnst, went to the Cadillac hotel and aroused the proprietor, Jack Morris, to make inquiries about the mysterious couple of whom Glover and Bizzell had told them. Mr. Morris stated that the couple had come in about 1 o'clock, just as he was preparing to retire for the night, and had registered as "C. H. Crawley & Wife, Sidney."

From some unknown source, Capt. Earnst was of the opinion that Conway had been minus his right foot only four weeks and he asked the hotel proprietor if the man who had registered as Crawley walked lame. He was told that the man walked so well that it would be difficult to determine that he had an artificial foot. Capt. Earnst, in spite of the fact that patrolman

Snyder was anxious to awaken the couple and question them, decided that they did not tally with the description he had of the missing couple and refused to disturb them.

The night men passed up the case and went off duty at their usual hour this morning, but were so impressed by the tip given "Bob" Glover that they left a report of the case on the report book at the station for the day men. At 7 o'clock this morning, patrolman Wingate and Billstein, on leaving the station after having heard the night men's report read, decided that the case was worth investigating further and they went to the Cadillac hotel and had the couple awakened. They were at once convinced that they had the right parties and placed them under arrest. A few minutes later they were joined by officers Wingate and Billstein, who made the arrest, are two of the veterans of the department and have for many years been regarded as two of the most capable men in the department. The arrest they made today was one of the most important that has ever been made in Lima, a fact which the Chicago department agree with the local department on.

Society and Club Life

HENRIETTA L. KEYES Editor

The Epworth League members of Grace M. E. church, gave a delightful Halloween social at the personage, Monday evening. As the guests arrived, each was given a string to follow, which as it led them through the rooms of all the house, finally brought them to the new basement where the reception and festivities were held. Tall shocks of corn, grinning Jack-o-lantern faces, black cats, owls and bats, carried out the fantastic and merry suggestions of Halloween. A fortune teller stationed at one corner of the large room formed one feature of amusement, with Mr. Frank Houtzer officiating as the wizard. Many other old-time customs of Halloween were carried out, and at the conclusion of the jollities, all partook of dainty refreshments served by a committee.

The Progressives met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Landis on south Collet street Tuesday afternoon. Every member of the club was present. The only important business which came before the club was the election of a new president to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mrs. A. O. Hotchkiss, and the admitting of four new members into the club, whose names as yet have been temporarily placed upon the waiting list. Mrs. Albert Gale has been chosen to fill the office of president for the remainder of this season.

Following the business session the members worked on the usual embroidery work of the club and chatted merrily until late afternoon. Before their departure the hostess served a delicious Halloween luncheon. The club will meet next in two weeks at the home of Mrs. John Keith and Mrs. Donald Keith, who reside on north Jameson avenue.

A charming little dinner party at which Dwight L. Goodyear presided as host, Monday evening, was given at the Elks' home as a compliment to Miles Standish and his bride Miss Bertha Marie O'Connor. The dinner was beautifully appointed, and covers were laid for only the members of the bridal party. Mr. Standish, Miss O'Connor, Miss Florence Loebe and Mr. Goodyear.

Today, Thursday, is Ladies' Day at Shawnee Country club, and a feature of the gathering will be the election of officers among the ladies for the coming season.

The Ladies' Aid society of Calvary Reformed church, held a social meeting at the home of Mrs. G. J. Pennacker, at 123 north Park avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

At the home of the bride's parents on west Kibby street, at high noon Wednesday, Miss Bonnie McGinn became the bride of Guy W. Brenthamer. The young couple will begin housekeeping at once at 792 Weadock street. The groom is an electrician at the Lima Telephone office and the bride was a telephone operator prior to her marriage. A host of friends join in wishing the young people much happiness in their wedded life.

Miss Mary Rojash has returned to this city after a prolonged stay in Columbus. She was entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Hill, formerly of this city, during a portion of her stay there.

Mrs. E. W. Matthias of Sandusky is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. L. Kirk, of north Baxter street.

The members of the Fortnightly Bridge club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. E. Sullivan, at 137 north Baxter street, Wednesday afternoon. The guests of the club for the meeting were Mrs. E. W. Hilmer, Mrs. J. D. Bailey, Mrs. C. F. Larkin and Mrs. N. D. Keys. At the close of a capitalizing series of rubbers Mrs. E. T. Cuthbert was awarded the club prize and Mrs. Bailey won the guest prize. The hostess served a dainty luncheon at the conclusion of the games. Vases of yellow chrysanthemums adorned the small tables at which the games were played.

Mrs. Cuthbert will entertain the club at its next meeting in a fortnight, at her home on west Market street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stummel, of east High street, are enjoying a visit from Leroy Harold, of Bartlesville, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Travis, of Homewood addition, are enjoying a visit from their son, Vance Travis, draftsman of the Goodyear Rubber company at Akron.

Mrs. George E. Smith returned to her home at Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, Thursday morning, after a visit with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Shel, of 750 west Elm street, this city.

TO FIGHT NURSE

MRS. GERTRUDE CHILDS.

New York, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Gertrude Westfall Childs, widow of Irving W. Childs, Broadway's celebrated "spender," who died about eight weeks ago, leaving her close to half a million dollars, will oppose the efforts of Miss Catherine E. Smith, the nurse who cared for Childs, to have the surrogate compel the family to produce an alleged second will he is declared to have left, in which he is said to have left Miss Smith a large sum of money. By the terms of the first will Miss Smith gets $2,000. In her petition Miss Smith says that for twelve years she was the nurse and companion of Childs.

LYRIC THEATRE.

Starting tonight at the Lyric Theatre, performance at 8:15, The Barrett Players will offer that interesting problem play, "A Girl Nobody Wants," a play that will appeal to all. Plenty of heart interest, plenty of fun. The Barrett Players need no word of comment, as every play they have produced in Lima during their stay here has been first class. "A Girl Nobody Wants," tonight, Friday and Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

held in Saratoga Springs in 1910. Up to that time Sherman and Col. Roosevelt had been personal friends. When the Republican state committee invited Sherman to act as temporary chairman of that convention he accepted and the friends of Col. Roosevelt objected to the designation. Sherman apparently had a majority of the elected delegates behind his candidacy until President Taft permitted the intimation to go forth that he would prefer that Roosevelt get the job. The Federal office holders lined up behind Roosevelt and friends of Sherman demanded that he fall out. He positively refused. With the same smile that had marked him at all times, he declared in the parlor of the United States Hotel that, even though he received only the votes of his home assembly district, he would stick to the finish and he did.

Roosevelt won easily but Sherman made no complaint although the former friendliness between the men was thereafter conspicuous by its absence. When the last Republican convention was held in Chicago, Sherman was sick. He had suffered a sharp attack of heart trouble while on the Adirondacks, but it was generally believed that he would soon get well. The New York state delegation lined up behind Sherman so far as the organization delegates were concerned and demanded that, if the president was to have a re-nomination, Sherman would be similarly honored. This was done, but the vice president was unable to take part in the present campaign. On notification day he was hardly able to deliver his speech of acceptance and has made no public speech since. He issued a lengthy address to the people in typewritten form a week ago urging them to retain in office the men and party "that had been responsible for present prosperity."

The vice president was believed to be slowly recovering until 10 days ago when he insisted on getting up out of bed and going to the polling place to register. This caused a relapse and then kidney complications set in which his already weakened system from his long illness could not throw off.

NAMING SUCCESSOR.

New York, Oct. 31.—The call for a special meeting of the Republican National committee to be held in Chicago on Nov. 12, a week after election, to select a successor to James S. Sherman as the Republican candidate for vice president, was telegraphed to all committee-men.

"No difficulty or inconvenience arises to the voters at the election next Tuesday because the votes then to be cast are for electors, and not for candidates for either president or vice president and the death of Mr. Sherman therefore does not affect the validity of the election or of the electors," said Chairman Hill.

Hill said no names had been mentioned so far as he knew in connection with the action to be taken by the committee.

IS UNIVERSAL TRUCE FURTHER OFF.

Someday, somewhere, on the war now in progress, asserts that the "some day" when the world shall have universal peace has been put further off than that. Perhaps, but not probable. The recently declared war in Italy in Tripoli is the latest of all to a war of aggression, and it was a war for a better civilization, and we may believe that it will result in the conditions of human justice have been improved. The war of the allies against Turkey is a movement for better things, while that in Mexico is a strife for the establishment of a more perfect rule of the people.
It is well to note the actual motive in each of these wars, for it is not, like that of the past, mere selfish aggrandizement.

The border line of oppression and misrule is being pushed back.
Nations are fighting more reluctantly and always with some improvement of human living conditions in view. The people everywhere are more, and rulers are less, and the people are not going to kill one another without good reason. They will no longer follow an ambitious leader who has thought only for his own glory. The gospel of government for the people is penetrating to the most remote parts of earth, and there is in many places effort at self-correction. Different peoples are coming better to understand each other, and knowledge and sympathy are driving out hostility.

War will probably always be possible, but there is no reason to think that the present strife has rendered peace more remote. It may be that it requires these blows to awaken the sluggish and bring them into community with the spirit of the things. With every war like these, we should say, the end of war comes nearer.

TAFT GROWS STRONGER.

The peculiar political situation of this presidential campaign is more apparent as the date of the election draws nearer. Partisans are becoming more bitter; there is more discussion; and the heat of the period has brought out a few wagers. But conditions are changing too slowly to play a part of import in the final result.

Preliminary canvassing over the country conclusively that the republican nominees can have for but a divided vote. There is much of the democratic vote which will be distributed between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, but to offset this, the fact that "the world loves a winner," will bring to the banner of Mr. Wilson many Republican votes, especially among first voters.

Mr. Taft grows stronger as election day grows nearer but the trend is only in tenths where hundreds are needed. Ohio is expected to cast six hundred thousand votes, or thereabouts, for either of the dominant parties. When it is remembered that either Mr. Taft or Mr.
Roosevelt can expect no more than two-thirds of these, it will still leave Mr. Wilson with 200,000 votes less over his nearest republican opponent. Granted that Mr.

Wilson should lose heavily from the normal democratic strength, and we see no reason that he should, he can afford to and still be winner by a handsome plurality.

In a canvass the country over the
the Chicago Record-Herald gives
Mr. Taft but three states, and Mr.
Roosevelt but two. It will be a miracle if either of the gentlemen receives this electoral college votes of these. Such states as Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois—the very heart of Republican strength —must undoubtedly go to Mr. Wilson. A sweeping democratic victory, so sweeping that it may sweep every state of the nation, is the only non-partisan forecast that can be made for next Tuesday.

FREAK

BETS ARE NOW BEING MADE ON NOVEMBER ELECTION.

ON THE CURB ITS 5 TO 1 SHOT AGAINST TAFT.

New York, Oct. 31.—More freak bets today were heard on the election and those who are trying to stimulate interest are going to great lengths. Offers have been extended to the results in both the senate and the house of representatives, with $50 to $1,000 that the next Senate goes democratic and $1,000 to $700 that the next house also is Democratic.

Other offers which are out of the ordinary are as follows: $1,000 against $2,000 that Roosevelt does not carry a single New England state; $2,000 even that he does not carry five states; $2,000 against $1,000 that he does not carry eight states and $3,000 to $1,000 that he does not carry 10 states.

As far as actual bets are concerned, there have been few of them, such as 1,000 against $2,000 that Strauss, the Progressive candidate for Governor, runs third; $500 at even that Wilson runs ahead of Sulzer; $300 even that Roosevelt gets more votes in Kings county than Taft and $500 even on Taft to beat Roosevelt in this state.

There were also small bets made at even money on Hedges against Strauss.

Members of the Stock Exchange offered to bet $1,000 to $1,600
that Wilson would be elected.
Roosevelt would run second and Taft third. The betting against the election of Taft on the curb was 5 to 1 today, the largest bets offered being $1,500 to $300.

FORTUNE

SHOWN OF SMALL FORTUNE

(By United Press)
Chicago, Oct. 31.—Miss Lillian Howard longed to be a star.
She had been a chorus girl long enough.

David Kross and Wm. A. Stone, partners in the fortune telling business, were held by the police today, charged with larceny—involved are Miss Howard's jewelry, worth $3,000 and her furs, worth $1,900.

According to Miss Howard she told the fortune tellers she wanted to be a star. They said, she declares, that they could arrange it for her by invoking the aid of planet Mars, who is himself a star. Several trips the fortune tellers made to see Mars, according to Miss Howard. They cost her $200 each.
She wanted the detectives to arrest "Planet Mars."

Officials Kelly and Trant told her they did not think they could find him in Cook county and their jurisdiction did not extend outside its bounds.

Chinese Barbers in Hard Luck.

Barber shops were the exception, rather than the rule, in China in the old days, itinerant barbers attending to their customers' wants in the streets or in the customers' home.
There appears to be no tendency toward the institution of barber shops since the change of hairdressing; infact, the tendency locally is to do away with the barber altogether. Thus many families are purchasing hairclippers, which seem to be regarded as the only essential to haircutting.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Easy and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much of a good cough syrup for $2.50.
Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, sore lungs, asthma, throat troubles, etc.
Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly.
Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.
Pinex is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualacal and all the other natural healing elements.
Other preparations will not work in this form.
The prompt results from this recipe have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.
A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, if money promptly refunded, goes with the recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Lima Daily News, St. Warner Ind.

All Lima Is Ready For Big Mardi Gras Festival This Evening

Fitting will-o'-wisp, weird and mysterious figures grotesquely clad and hideous denizens of mental creation in one endless panorama of spirited merriment will tonight inaugurate the first municipal Mardi Gras of the city of Lima.

The stage is set. Participants and celebrants are all agog today with nervous anticipation of tonight's big event. Tonight is Halloween. Lima city officials have decreed that the night is to be celebrated in true municipal fashion that the "rough stuff" must go and that only boisterous or obnoxious celebration will be punishable by fine or imprisonment.

In military parade, the celebrants in weird garb ranging all the way from the king of the Mardi Gras in stately robes down to the meanest imp of the pageant, will pace the principal streets of the city winding up their march upon the public square where city officials will touch off the fireworks and confetti blasts of the evening. The parade will be headed by the grand marshal, Major F. M. Bell, followed by a platoon of police and Fred C. Nordquist, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., who has been chosen King of the

FIRE LADDIES IN COLLISION

A pile of crushed stone standing in south Pine street without signal light came near resulting in a tragedy at 8:10 o'clock Wednesday evening when with the south side department on a run to Pine and Kibby street where a fire alarm had been pulled, the horses drawing the heavy steamer plunged headlong into the obstruction. The steamer reeled and swayed as if to fall, but bare presence of mind on the part of Captain Curtis driving the equipment righted the animal and an accident was averted. Standing on the pavement, Engineer Clay was jarred loose from his grab-iron and came near being thrown to the pavement.

The alarm was pulled at box No. 47 by C. F. Taffinger, 208 south Pine street. Seeing a Halloween reflection in the sky, he concluded that a dangerous fire had started and called the department.

In response to an alarm at 10:30 o'clock last night, the central department went on a run to the D. T. & J. freight house where a bundle of hard soaked rats were burning. Chief Mack believes the waste was placed under the freight house with incendiary motives. Damage was less than $10.00.

PRESIDENT'S TRIBUTE TO DEAD COLLEAGUE.
New York, Oct. 31.—President Taft, immediately after arriving in New York, dispatched the following telegram to Mrs. James S. Sherman at Utica:

"Mrs. Taft and I extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in your great sorrow. Our hearts go out to you in the loss of your noble and loving husband. Vice President Sherman had rendered distinguished services to his country, and his death 10 years before the time allotted by the Psalmist is a great loss. As a member of Congress and a Vice President he endeared himself to all who knew him. His memory is full of sweetness and light."

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

CAPITAL CITY IS ENSHROUDED IN MOURNING

Over the Untimely Death Of Popular Vice President

WAS ONE OF THE ORIGINAL "BIG FIVE" IN LOWER HOUSE.

PRESIDENT EXPECTS TO ATTEND FUNERAL.

ARDENT BASEBALL FAN HE SELDOM MISSED A GAME.

(By United Press)
Washington, Oct. 31.—Flags at half staff on all public buildings were the outward symbol of mourning here today following the death of Vice-President Jas. S. Sherman. The senate officials were making preparations to notify all senators of the funeral arrangements awaiting word from Utica as to the wishes of the Sherman family.

Postmaster General Hitchcock, the only cabinet member now in the city expected to attend the funeral. He was a warm personal friend of the vice president and often visited his summer home. It was assumed that President Taft also would attend, cancelling several speaking engagements during the latter part of the week.

That the chief executive was deeply shocked at Sherman's death was apparent when he arrived here early today. He did not appear at his desk in the office building until late, remaining in the library of the White House.

Politicians here remarked today that the vice president's death is the first in the ranks of the "old guard" of the house of representatives. In the old Cannon regime, Cannon, Sherman, Payne, Dalzell and Tawney were known as the "big five." They dominated the house. Sherman was "promoted," becoming vice president. Tawney was defeated for re-election and last spring Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, failed of nomination in the primaries. After March 4, only two of the old five are fighting to remain. The vice president never lost his interest in the work of the house and many a day found him sitting at his old desk on the floor of the lower legislative body, talking with his cronies of the old "Big Five," or listening to speeches.

TAFT STRONGER BY MANY VOTES AT THE WIND-UP

Will be Second in the Race in Allen County

HEAVYWEIGHT MARATHON RUNNER GAINS AS HE NEARS THE FINISH.

CONGRESSMAN JAS. M. COX WILL LEAD WILSON IN OHIO

CANDIDATES FIND EVIDENCE OF BUT LITTLE CUTTING ON COUNTY TICKET.

(By John W. Beall).
With but four more days intervening before the fateful and history making election of 1912, the rally to the Taft pennant which was predicted by this paper more than a week ago is decidedly in evidence. There is reason to believe that the heavyweight contestant in the presidential marathon is gaining in strength as the finish draws near and while there seems no chance that he will overtake the New Jersey governor, who now leads both Taft and Roosevelt by many lengths, there is reason to believe that he will not be in the class with Debs at the tape. This forecast has to do chiefly with local conditions. During the last few days there has been a marked change of front in the republican army and I am willing to make the pre-election prediction that Taft will run second to Wilson in Allen county. It is my belief that the president will carry the city of Lima and while Wilson and Roosevelt will gain enough votes from the republican party in the rural districts to weaken him on the total vote of the county, it is my belief that Roosevelt will not have votes enough to give him second place in the race in the totals of city and county combined. As the race now stands Wilson will lead in the county with a plurality of from 800 to 1,000. Taft will be second, Roosevelt third and Debs fourth when the votes are counted.

As previously stated, there is a large portion of the silent vote in this community which will go to the present occupant of the White House. A goodly portion of the president's strength will come from the democratic party. Business men and men of affairs generally, including contractors whose volume of business depends largely upon the prosperous or stringent conditions in the country at large are afraid to make a change in the administration of national affairs. They have not forgotten the words of caution that were spoken by the late senator Marcus A. Hanna in the last McKinley campaign, when he said "Let well enough alone and stand pat." The speech of Hon. William J. Bryan, recently delivered in Memorial Hall, in which he used his "Panic primer," will go a long way towards helping Wilson hold his own in this county but it will not be effective among certain elements of voters who care nothing for party and who believe that conditions are better to be than party principles. The republican "panic" scarecrow is a campaign fallacy but it has not been used without effect. I am speaking of the situation as I believe it exists; not as I might prefer to have it. There will be a heavy falling off in the democratic vote on the head of the ticket in the democratic strongholds of both north and south Lima.

Congressman James M. Cox, the popular democratic nominee for governor will run ahead of Wilson in this city, in the county and in the state. He will be elected governor by a larger plurality than Governor Harmon received at the last election in the state and will probably lead Wilson in the state by forty or fifty thousand votes. Ohio will be carried, however, by both Wilson and Cox.

DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS" NOT CALOMEL, OIL OR SALTS.
Please try this gentle fruit laxative to cleanse your stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels of the sour bile and gasses and clogged-up waste.

Long breath, coated tongue, dull, throbbing headache, stomach sour and full of gases, indigestion, biliousness and a sallow complexion, mean that your thirty feet of bowels are loaded with waste matter; that these organs of the body are obstructed; liver stagnant and stomach full of poisonous gases, sour bile and undigested, fermenting food not properly carried off. Most of our ills are caused by constipated bowels. We all need a laxative sometimes; nobody can doubt that. The only question is, which one is the best? and that isn't a question any more. Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of juicy figs, senna and aromatics, must act in a harmless, gentle and natural way. Syrup of Figs can be constantly used without injury. Its action is the action of fruit—of eating coarse food—of taking exercise. It is a true and effective liver and bowel cleanser and regulator. Most folks dread physic—they shrink from the taste and after effects. Syrup of Figs is delicious, and, besides, you don't realize you have taken anything until morning, when all the clogged up waste of the system is gently but thoroughly moved on and out of the bowels without gripping or weakness. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." This is the old reliable and only genuine. Refuse, with contempt, any other Fig Syrup recommended as good. They are imitations meant to deceive you. Read the label carefully and look for the name California Fig Syrup Company.

Oswego, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Convict $1,750, under which number former Lieut. of Police Chas. Becker is now known in the old gray prison on the hills south of this town, awoke in his cell in the death house today after a night of perfect sleep to participate in the routine that will be his from now on until he is either granted a new trial by the court of appeals, or is led through the "little door" into the square chamber adjacent to be shocked to death.

The convicted murderer of gambler Herman Rosenthal, was very confident that he would be granted a new trial and he assured principal keeper Connaughton that he would give no trouble to any one.

HANDS COLLEGE AWFUL KNOCK

Denver, Colo., Oct. 31.—"The conferment of a college education upon all the young men of the country for the next decade would be one of the greatest calamities that could befall the people."

This remark was made by Dr. D. E. Phillips, professor of Psychology at the University of Denver. "I mean, of course, under the present conditions," Dr. Phillips continued, "where a college education is considered only a means of increasing one's ability to make money. If all the youths in the country were brought to college there would be a clamor for the easy, big jobs and the world would be far worse for their having gone to college."

Wheeling W. Va., Oct. 31.—At the noon hour today a lone robber entered the jewelry store of Andrew Stauver on Market street, in the main business section of the city and pushing a big gun under the proprietor's nose, secured a tray of diamonds and escaped in the crowd. Going to the river, he stole a horse and wagon and after driving furiously through the packed business streets to the post office disappeared into the McCauley hotel since which time he has not been found. The loss of jewelry will amount to several thousand dollars.

CASTING ABOUT FOR SUCCESSOR TO MR. SHERMAN

NAMES OF HADLEY, BORAH AND CUMMINS MOST PROMINENTLY MENTIONED.

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 31.—At National Republican headquarters today members of the inner council said that Vice-President Sherman's successor on the ticket undoubtedly would be a man of "Progressive tendencies." The following three names were mentioned: Governor Lindley, of Missouri; Senator Borah, of Idaho; Senator Cummins, of Iowa.
"In case of a deadlock in the electoral college," it was explained, "the election would go to the house and then in the event of a deadlock there, which seems likely, it would go to the senate. It would devolve upon the senate to elect one of the candidates to the vice-presidency."
It is well known in that event it would turn on who the progressives want, which makes necessary the selection of a man of progressive tendencies as Sherman's successor.

HUMAN

HEAD LODGES IN TREE WHEN GLYCERINE PLANT BLOWS UP.

TWO WORKMEN KILLED AND PLANT IS DESTROYED AT BRADNER, O.

Bradner, O., Oct. 31.—Bodies of two workmen and debris wreckage of the American Glycerine Co.'s plant near Bradner were scattered over the countryside this forenoon when the factory blew up.
The shock of the explosion was terrific. It was felt distinctly 25 miles away. Houses in Bradner were rocked as in the grip of an earthquake.
The dead are Hugh Easton, veteran nitroglycerine man, and Edward Linkenstein, Easton's associate in the factory. Both were married.
A vast hole in the ground marks the site of the factory.
At first it was thought that there remained no fragment of the two men in the factory when it exploded. Then a searcher looked up into the trees of a grove that stood beside the factory. There fast in the branches was Linkenstein's head as though peering from between the yellowing leaves.

MEET AT POST OFFICE.

CLAIMED BRIDE IN HOOSIERDOM TUESDAY NIGHT

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER O. J. ROSE WEDDED IN INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA.

Otto J. Rose, former newspaper man, former clerk of the council, and now the efficient assistant to Postmaster Albert E. Gale, arrived in this city Wednesday evening, from Indianapolis, Ind., and brought with him a charming bride whom he led to the altar in the Hoosier capital on Tuesday evening.
The bride was formerly Mrs. Mary Alice Chester, of Elkhart, Ind. She was an old acquaintance of Mr. Rose, they having met in Marion, Ohio, a number of years ago when Mr. Rose was residing in that city. A warm friendship was formed by them at that time and when they met again last summer the friendship ripened into a love-romance which was brought to a happy climax by their marriage Tuesday evening. They were married at the home of Mrs. Eliza Hines, an aunt of the bride, in Indianapolis, the Rev. Dr. Stauffeld, pastor of the Meridian M. E. church of that city, performing the nuptial ceremony.
Mr. and Mrs. Rose will reside at the home prepared by the groom in advance at 743 south Broadway. The best wishes of Mr. Rose's legion of Lima friends are extended.

PRESIDENT ISSUES A PROCLAMATION

"To the People of the United States:

"James Schoolcraft Sherman, vice-president of the United States, died at his home in Utica, New York, at 9:42 o'clock, on the evening of October 30, 1912. On his death the nation has lost one of its most illustrious citizens and one of its most efficient and faithful servants.
"Elected at an early age to the Mayorship of his native city, the continued confidence of his community was shown by his election for ten terms as a representative in the national congress. As a legislator he at once took high rank, displayed such attributes of upright and wise statesmanship, as to commend him to the people of the United States for the second highest office within their gift. As presiding officer of the Senate he won the respect and esteem of all for his fairness and impartiality. His private life was noble and good. His general disposition and attractiveness of character, endeared him to all whose privilege it was to know him. His devotion to the best interests of his native land will endear his memory to his fellow countrymen.

"In respect to the memory and the eminent and various services of this high official and patriotic public servant, I direct that on the day of the funeral, the executive offices of the United States shall close and all posts and stations of the army and navy shall display the national flag at half mast and that the representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of thirty days.
(Signed) WM. H. TAFT.
By the President, A. A. Adeo, acting secretary of state."

STOCK MARKET HOLDS ITS OWN

QUIET TONE COMES AFTER SEVERAL DAYS OF FRENZIED SELLING.

New York, Oct. 31.—The stock market opened firm Thursday after a couple of days of heavy selling and several specialties making good gains. Governments went unchanged and other bonds were irregular. By the noon hour additional gains had been made in several specialties and at the end of fifteen minutes the tone was strong. The general close was strong.

The critical days in the foreign market settlements are Thursday and Friday. Until these are passed it will not be possible to determine just what the losses due to the war scare have been. These described as being more serious than at any time since the Russo-Japanese War. Private messages today from London and the continent gave the impression that no serious difficulties would be encountered at the settlements, but there was a false note in the cables relating to radically changed politics overnight. The impression these gave was that every effort was being made to bolster up the market while the financial negotiations now in progress were being carried out.

How SNEEZING SPREADS DISEASE

Science Discovers a New Reason for Epidemics of Scarlet Fever, Measles and Spinal Meningitis in the Sneeze, Which Is an Effective Way of Passing on the Germs from One Person to Another

Child Has Scarlet Fever—

She Recovers—and Is Outwardly Well—

But Her Nasal Passages Are Full of the Germs—

Sneeze Transmits the Germs to Those Around Her—

And They Fall Victims to the Disease.

RECENT scientific investigation indicates that by far the greatest single factor in the spread of disease is what has been hitherto regarded as the harmless act of sneezing.

The list of deadly ailments thus communicated includes infantile paralysis, cerebro-spinal meningitis, diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, whooping cough, mumps and last, but by no means least, the common cold, whose harmful effects are greatly underestimated by the average layman.

This is truly a formidable list, and yet it does not take into consideration various other germ diseases which, less directly perhaps, may be transmitted in the same manner. Thus it would hardly be accurate to say that tuberculosis as a general thing is spread by sneezing, because the seat of infection of this disease is not the air passages of the nose and throat, but the lungs, from which the germs are not ordinarily ejected by the act of sneezing.

But, on the other hand, the germs of this disease, like many others, freely circulate in the air and dust, readily find entrance into the noses and throats of normal persons who, by sneezing, may easily transmit them to those susceptible to the disease.

Indeed, the most alarming phase of this latest medical discovery lies in the fact that most of the infectious diseases mentioned are such as may be communicated by perfectly healthy persons who, nevertheless, carry the germs.

Thus, Dr. Charles F. Bolduan, one of the bacteriological experts of the New York Health Department, has declared that one out of every hundred individuals carries the germs of diphtheria constantly in his throat, although he may never have suffered from the disease himself. This is likewise true of various other equally dangerous ailments. As no particular effort is ordinarily made to repress sneezing, because it has hitherto been considered harmless, the spread of disease in this manner has obviously been much greater than it might otherwise have been.

The importance of the discovery, therefore, lies in the fact that it will now be possible to avoid germs which have hitherto not been suspected.

That measles and scarlet fever are spread by the sneeze, and not by falling scales of skin, as used to be imagined, has only very recently been learned. One of the most conspicuous symptoms of measles is a "cold," which causes much sneezing and coughing. By this means the germs of the disease are scattered about and other people take them in with the air they breathe. No wonder that the malady is so remarkably contagious.

The discovery that measles is spread by sneezing was made very recently by Dr. John F. Anderson, the eminent surgeon in charge of the Government Hygienic Laboratory at Washington. Its importance can hardly be exaggerated, for it shows exactly how the spread of this highly-contagious malady can be prevented. One word expresses the whole idea—isolation. A sufferer from the disease (which is much more frequently fatal than is commonly supposed) must be quarantined as rigidly as if for smallpox.

The germ of measles, like those of yellow fever and scarlet fever, is probably too minute to be seen, even with the aid of a microscope. At all events, it has never been identified, though Dr. Anderson has found that monkeys are subject to the disease, and there is hope that a serum may be obtained for its cure or prevention.

Common colds are distributed in the same way. One person in a family who happens to be thus afflicted is likely, by sneezing, to fill the whole house with germs. They float about in the air, and it is more chances if every member of the household does not catch the complaint. One often notices how a cold "runs through" a family; now we know the reason why.

It has been proved by experiment that a person suffering from a cold will discharge the germs to a distance of five feet by the mere act of talking in a loud voice. This was ascertained by holding gelatine plates in front of the talker, the germs received upon them being afterward developed into "cultures." Judge, then, of what must happen when the kind of explosion which we call a sneeze occurs.

It has been estimated that as the result of a sneeze over a hundred cubic feet of the surrounding air becomes filled with the germs discharged by the sneeze.

You get aboard a street car. A passenger sneezes violently two or three times. The result is invisible to your eyes, but what it amounts to is that all of the air inside of the vehicle is filled with exceedingly minute particles, every one of which carries a few germs of the cold from which the sneezer is suffering. If you do not catch it, you are in luck, that is all.

Epidemics of bad colds often spread through entire communities; the street cars help a lot. It is the same way with grippe. The latter, of course, is a dangerous disease, but colds also are dangerous—much more so than most people imagine. They are the starters of many a serious, and even fatal, malady.

Do you know what makes so many people deaf? In nearly all cases that lamentable affliction is due to common colds and nothing else. From the nasal passages, on each side thereof, a tube leads directly to the inner ear. These are the so-called Eustachian tubes, and their business is to supply air to the space behind the ear drum, in order that the latter may vibrate freely in response to sound waves. But if the tubes be obstructed, there is interference with this function, and deafness ensues.

The germs of colds are liable to make their way from the nasal passages along and through the tubes, causing a congestion of their linings. If, as often happens, such congestion becomes chronic, more or less deafness inevitably results. Furthermore, the deafness is progressive; it becomes steadily though slowly worse as time goes on.

Deafness is usually regarded as an affliction of age especially. But it is not such in reality. Like baldness, it is an affliction of youth. If a man is going to become bald, he begins to lose his hair while yet in his twenties. It is the same way with deafness. The trouble may not be noticed for many years, but it starts early in life, as a rule. The famous Dr. Woods Hutchinson says that old folks are more liable than young people to be very hard of hearing, because, having lived longer, they "have had more time in which to catch colds."

Dr. W. C. Rucker, assistant surgeon-general of the Public Health Service, is authority for the statement that probably scarlet fever, mumps and whooping cough are spread by sneezing. That diphtheria is scattered in this way there is no doubt whatever. Quite a number of years ago the famous Dr. Klebs, one of the two men who first found the germ of diphtheria, exhibited to his pupils large plates of glass which were held (several feet away) in front of a person sick with diphtheria, the latter being thereupon induced to sneeze. A chemical stain was then applied to the glass, which colored only the diphtheria germs, and the latter were seen to be scattered profusely over the surface.

The germs of infantile paralysis have recently been proved to grow plentifully in the nasal secretions of persons suffering from that disease, and there is excellent reason for supposing that it may be, and often is, communicated by sneezing.

It has been demonstrated (again on the authority of Dr. Rucker) that the frightful malady called cerebral spinal meningitis is distributed by chronic "carriers"—that is to say, by healthy persons who, without being at all aware of the fact, carry the germs in their throats and nasal passages. They go about sneezing here and there, and people pick up the complaint. This accounts for the fact that the disease is so markedly "sporadic" in character, cases appearing in one place and another without any apparent connection. But, if the truth were known, the epidemic (when one occurs) was caused, perhaps, by a single "carrier" who bestowed the infection upon different people with whom he happened to come into contact.

Surgeons nowadays in performing operations, are careful to wear masks over their noses and mouths, lest by sneezing or coughing they infect wounds. When it is realized that pus-forming germs are at all times very numerous in the throat and nasal passages, it will be realized how necessary is this precaution.

Now, why is it that we sneeze? When one comes to think of it, the performance is rather odd. Nevertheless, it must mean something; it must have a definite object.

Quite true, it has an object, and one that is highly important. The prime necessity of life is fresh air for breathing; hence the breathing tube must be kept open. The nose is the external opening of this tube, and the object of the sneeze is to remove obstructions.

The nasal passages are lined with sensitive nerves. Any irritation of these nerves suggests an obstruction and produces a spasm. The spasm and its reflex constitutes what we call a sneeze.

To sneeze seems a simple matter. We do it without thinking about it. Particularly, the performance being quite automatic. But in reality it is a complex business, involving the entire mechanism of the respiratory apparatus.

First, as a preparation, it is necessary to fill your lungs—a thing accomplished by a sudden intake of the breath. Now you are almost ready. But, as a further preliminary, you close tightly all the passages of nose and throat through which air can be expelled from the lungs. Then, with a violent contraction of the diaphragm and other powerful muscles, you simultaneously open the nose and throat, and the air escapes. Being under pressure, it makes a loud noise—for exactly the same reason that a bursting automobile tire goes bang!

This is a sneeze. The air is blown out with such violence as to dislodge any ordinary obstruction. If there is an accumulation of mucus in the nasal passages, it is discharged. A sense of relief follows, and the sneezer, in restoring his handkerchief to his pocket, utters a gasp of satisfaction.

But if the explosion (for such it is in fact) is permitted to occur without intervention by the handkerchief, it is inevitable that any germs existing in the nasal passages should be distributed far and wide, to the great peril of other people.

Theatres, therefore, are poorly ventilated as a rule, are great places for catching colds. Crowded by night and by day, the air they offer for breathing purposes is full of germs distributed by sneezing and coughing people. The dust on the floor is filled with them, and, stirred up constantly by the shuffling feet of in-comers and out-goers, it rises, to be taken into the lungs and breathing passages of the spectators.

Colds, it should be realized, are among the most contagious of all diseases. They are specific infections, due not to one kind of germ merely, but to a number. One of the most conspicuous species of cold-producing microbes is the micrococcus catarrhalis—which, being translated, means "little round bacterium of catarrh." It has been bred artificially, so that it is thoroughly well known. Often it is found in "pure culture" in the nasal passages

"By far the greatest single factor in the spread of disease is what has been hitherto regarded as the harmless act of sneezing!"

Deadly Diseases Scattered by the Sneeze

INFANTILE PARALYSIS AND SPINAL MENINGITIS. The germs of those diseases are now definitely known to lodge in the nasal passages, whence they are expelled in sneezing.

MEASLES. Colds and sneezing are invariably symptoms of this disease and, it has been recently ascertained, account for its spread.

SCARLET FEVER. Not the scaling of the skin, but the distribution of germs lodged in nasal passages is now known to be the cause of contagion.

DIPHTHERIA. One out of every hundred persons carries the germs of this disease in his throat and spreads them by sneezing.

PNEUMONIA. Pneumococci lodge in nose and throat and are ejected by sneezing.

WHOOPIING COUGH AND MUMPS. These maladies, often serious in their after effects, are known to be communicated by sneezing.

COLDS. This common but dangerous ailment is readily communicated by sneezing. Colds are the principal cause of deafness.

DR. WALKER ROASTS HIKE GARB OF GIRLS

TROUSERED WOMAN THEN TOASTS DIRECTOR FOR DOING WHAT SHE DOES

Tight skirts, corsets, hopping hats, silk stockings and high-heeled shoes are abominable things for girls to wear on a cross-country jaunt," exclaimed Dr. Mary Walker, exponent of male attire for women when told about the weekly Sunday hike which are being managed by the department of public recreation in Columbus. Last Sunday several girls came to the starting place for the hike dressed in clothes which fit better in the drawing room than country roads and corn fields. Yesterday the recreation director issued orders as to how the girls should dress.

"A man has no business ordering a woman to dress in any special way," said Dr. Walker. "Of course I agree with his recommendation that corsets be left at home and that low-heeled shoes be worn instead of dainty white slippers. It is a wrong principle, however, for a man to try to change women's styles. He does not know the troubles which they cause. He had better let the women work out their own salvation."

"For the young woman who conducts the girls all their walking trips to wear sensible clothing herself, would be the most effective way of teaching young girls the proper dress."

When informed that the young woman who conducts the trips is a strong advocate of "sensible" feminine wearing apparel, though not going so far as to don trousers, Dr. Walker said, "That is good. Those walking trips will do much good for the children."

She was still not satisfied that such trips touch the fundamental difficulties in women's health. Those walking trips are only superficial, she thinks. The real method of improving the health of women, and, consequently of their children, is to reform dress, according to Dr. Walker.

Recreation Director Wambold does not advocate trousers for girls when they take their walk. He says this, however: "Every girl should wear high shoes that are strong, heavy stockings, short skirts if possible, loose waists, (middy or blouse waists are best), comfortable underwear, sweater and a small hat. Boys should wear high shoes, loose shirts, soft collars, sweaters or short coats and hats rather than caps. Don't dress too warmly. You will feel more comfortable with just enough clothes so that you will have to walk fast to keep warm."

TIME EXTENDED

UNITED DOCTORS WERE UNABLE TO EXAMINE ALL CALLERS.

Owing to the unprecedented number of callers at the new Lima Institute of United Doctors located in the Cincinnati block, these specialists were unable to examine all who came to consult them, many had to be turned away and their treatment postponed. Some did not even get to speak to the master specialist in charge. Besides there have come a large number of requests from afflicted men and women living at a distance asking for an opportunity to call for the free diagnosis-treatments, and the United Doctors being desirous of treating every sick person alike living within Lima and vicinity they concluded, after a meeting of the directors of the association, to extend the time of the special free offer.

It has been decided therefore to extend the grand free treatment offer another few weeks and the date has been set for the final expiration of this offer to Nov. 25th. This however will positively be the only extension of time made and all who wish to take advantage of this grand offer should call at as early a date as possible as the last days of the offer will naturally be very busy ones. The object of the offer is to secure a few suspiciously incurable cases from each community, as test cases, in order to show what can be done by this wonderful new scientific system of medicine. A limited number will be cured free. And now that the offer has been extended every one desirous of testing this new method of treatment should appreciate this opportunity offered by the United Doctors.

The offer is as follows: Consultation is free. Examination is free. Treatment at the Institute including all laboratory tests made to determine the true cause of a sufferer's trouble all are free. The only cost is for the remedies used. Each patient is expected to pay cash for his or her medicines excepting very poor persons, worthy ones, who will be furnished medicines free also.

This is really a very remarkable as well as generous offer by these great specialists as it is not an offer of a day's free services only, nor a week, but is an offer of free services till well, regardless of the length of time required.

The diseases treated are the chronic diseases of the blood, skin, nerves, liver, kidneys, stomach, bowels, bladder, and heart. Special diseases of men. Special diseases of women. Including rheumatism, sciatica, neuritis, gallstone disease, goitre, dropsy, dyspepsia, catarrh, asthma, eczema, salt rheum, etc.

Consultation is free but only curable cases are accepted for treatment. However no one should despair until they have called as many who have been given up as incurable by others can be quickly relieved and permanently cured by this new system of medicine which seems to banish disease like magic almost.
